Professional Experience

Myrna joined Marts & Lundy as a senior consultant in 2005, following nearly eight years at the University of Colorado Foundation and twenty years in higher education fundraising. From 1997 through 2003, Myrna served as the vice president of development for the University of Colorado at Boulder. In 2003, Myrna was promoted to senior vice president.

Prior to her work at the University of Colorado, Myrna was director of development and special gifts and later interim vice president, university relations and development for San Diego State University. Before San Diego State, Myrna held various key leadership roles in the Development office for Washington State University.

Myrna served on the Marts & Lundy Board of Directors from 2006-2008. A frequent presenter at national conferences and seminars for CASE and others, she has also served on CASE's Commission on Philanthropy and as co-chair of CASE's International Assembly. Myrna recently received the CASE Crystal Apple award for outstanding teaching.
