John G. Lewis, Jr. Senior Consultant

Education: The Thacher School
L'Ecole Nouvelle (Switzerland)
Brown University

Residence: Bristol, RI and Brookline, MA

Professional Experience

John joined Marts & Lundy in 1991 after serving as director of planned giving at Brown University for fourteen years. Prior to that, he served as director of deferred giving, alumni secretary and business manager at The Thacher School. John served two terms, totaling 20 years as a Thacher Trustee, during the period from 1983 to 2008, and in recognition of his long association with the School, he has recently been elected an Honorary Life Trustee.

John served on the Marts & Lundy Board of Directors from 1995 to 1999. He has a varied consulting practice with Marts & Lundy including a robust international client list.
